

Gregory MacNeil

APT Vice President Gregory MacNeil

Gregory is Vice-President of Jerry MacNeil Architects Limited, a 32-year old firm in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and heads its Metric Building Survey Division. He received his Bachelor of Arts Degree majoring in International Relations from Acadia University, both a Bachelor of Environmental Design Studies and Master of Architecture Degree from the Technical University of Nova Scotia, completed post-graduate studies at Harvard University and at the Catholic Theological Union in Chicago, attended the ICCROM 12th International Course on Wood Conservation Technology and received credit for it from the Norwegian University of Science and Technology, the Analyzing and Recording Historic Buildings Course offered by the English Heritage at Oxford University, a four semester course on Construction and Project Management at the Technical University of Nova Scotia, and has extensive training in Occupational and Health Safety. He has been published, has carried out work in conservation in Canada, Germany, and the United States; has presented papers in Canada, Norway and the United States; and was guest lecturer on Rectified Photography and Tacheometric Surveying in Oslo in 2008. He is a member of the Historic Trust of Nova Scotia and serves on its Religious Building Committee.

Specialty Areas: Metric Building Survey and Photo Rectification
Architectural Millwork Design, Documentation and BIM/CAD/CAM Reconstruction
Building Conditions Reports
BIM Modeling and BIM based Contract Documentation
Forensic Investigation
Liturgical Space and Furnishings Design

APT Roles: In addition to being an APT Vice President, Gregory is currently the President of the APT Lunenburg Chapter, Chair of the Bylaws, Policy and Ethics Committee and a member of the Chapters Committee. Previously, he served on the APT Board of Directors, was Program Chair of the Halifax Conference and Co-chair of the Training and Education Committee.