FS03 Challenge and Goals of Preservation and Management of the Historical Site of Île d’Orléans

FIELD SESSION DESCRIPTION

Île d’Orléans is nearly 190 km² (76 sq. mi.) of breathtaking vistas comprising lush greenery dotted with nearly 600 historical buildings, 20 designated historic monuments and more than 75 historic barns.

The entire island was designated as an historic district by the provincial Government in 1970. The objective is not only to preserve its historic buildings, but also ensure that they are well integrated into their surroundings. In addition to presenting an overview of this rich history, this field session will focus on the challenges related to building conservation and managing this historic site.

1. The participant will be able to understand the different levels of government and their role in the conservation of the historic site, Île d’Orléans;
2. The participant will be able to understand how this historic site is managed;
3. The participant will be able to understand the stages involved in the Maison Drouin restoration project;
4. The participant will be able to understand the architectural and landscape issues involved in the conservation of the island;
5. The participant will be able to identify the different architectural styles and their characteristics;
6. The participant will be able to understand the history of the development of the island.
