

GS-11/12 Historian/Architect (Historic Preservation) positions, National Park Service, Technical Preservation Services (TPS) Division

Website: <https://www.nps.gov/tps>

The incumbent serves as either an Architect or an Historian specializing in Historic Preservation in the Technical Preservation Services (TPS) Division, which administers the Federal rehabilitation tax credit program, promulgates the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties, and develops historic preservation guidance and information on preserving and rehabilitating historic buildings. Since the tax incentive program's inception in 1976, it has generated more than $96.87 billion in private investment in historic rehabilitation, in communities large and small throughout the nation. The Secretary's Standards and technical preservation guidance developed by TPS is widely used at the federal, state, and local levels and by design and building industry professionals, non-profit organizations, and the general public.
