

The Association for Preservation Technology International Association internationale pour la préservation et ses techniques

Available Positions

The Publication Committee's Social Media Group is currently recruiting volunteers. The LinkedIn Editor, YouTube Editor, and Special Topics Content Editor positions are currently open.

- The LinkedIn Editor responsibilities include managing the APT LinkedIn company and group, welcoming new members, reviewing posts, and connecting with our partner organizations, chapters, and members on LinkedIn.
- The YouTube Editor responsibilities include publishing APT developed video content, publishing APT curated playlists, and connecting with our viewers, partner organizations, and chapters on YouTube.
- The Special Topics Content Editor responsibilities include researching, developing, and publishing preservation focused post series which are shared on our social media platforms. Past series have included #ArchitectureABC and #WorldsFairWednesday.

APT members are welcomed to contact the Social Media Group via email (socialmedia@apti.org) to inquire about these positions or to get involved in other capacities.