

Preservation Architect – Ann Arbor or Detroit, Michigan

Recently designated a 2020 Top Workplace by the Detroit Free Press, Quinn Evans (QE) is a premier design firm with offices located in the Midwest and Mid-Atlantic regions of the United States. With offices in Ann Arbor and Detroit, Michigan, our Nation's Capital, Washington, DC, Baltimore, Maryland, and Richmond, Virginia, the firm serves clients in diverse but interrelated practice areas including learning, culture, heritage, and living. Please see our website at www.quinnevans.com.

We are currently seeking a full-time Preservation Architect with proven leadership skills for our Detroit or Ann Arbor office. This position provides opportunities for professional growth and engagement. The ideal candidate must be motivated, a creative thinker, and be passionate about creating and preserving places that enrich and inspire. The position involves working with diverse teams on a wide range of local and national projects, including projects involving the National Park Service, historic tax credits, conditions assessments, adaptive reuse, as well as civic and cultural institutions.

Qualifications:

- Professional degree in Architecture with a minimum of 6 years of experience working on preservation and adaptive reuse projects; a degree or certificate in historic preservation is preferred
- Demonstrated leadership and experience working in team environments
- Excellent writing and graphic communication skills
- Experience working with the Secretary of Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties
- In-depth knowledge of construction materials and assemblies, including existing construction and historic finishes
- Proficient in the development of construction documents
- Proficient with Revit; knowledge of Deltek Vision or Newforma is a plus
- Attention to detail, organized, and self-motivated

Quinn Evans is an equal opportunity employer, offering employment to qualified individuals regardless of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation/gender status, Veteran's status, and disability. We are committed to diversity and inclusion and encourage women and diverse applicants to apply. Must provide proof of COVID 19 vaccination.

Submit cover letter, resume, and portfolio